Psalm 121:1

*I lift up my eyes to the hills-- where does my help come from?
My help comes from YHVH, the Maker of heaven and earth.
indeed, HE who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.*

Some wait all day for help, some wait a week, and some wait all their lifetime.

Psalm 46:1-7 teaches that YHVH is a very present help in trouble and that He points you to the river. The river is the Holy Spirit that gladdens the heart.

Strength comes by the workings of faith and love. Faith and love are practical working principles that make people strong enough to overcome. Faith and love are two principles that safeguard your life in times of trial and pressure.

I understand that all over the world, especially in the times we are living in, many felt that all hope is lost. As we are living in a time of great tribulation, people are walking around concerned about their future.

Be encouraged that we are serving a wonderful God Almighty and as we already covered in our previous reading that we are certainly not left as orphans.

Our journey over the last two odd years, taught us much about life, love and appreciation.

As we look back at what seemed to be normal for us before, we in fact moved into a much higher level of faith than we realized. Things that were taken for granted before are now of much value to us all.

There is such a divine pause in life and YHVH is busy to align us with the greater plan He has in store for us. Don't give up or in, stand tall and know that YHVH has gone before you. And He has provided everything for you that you need to move into an accomplishment in this season.

Our strength is from YHVH, our maker and Creator. We are now living in a time of increasing revelation. It is now time for breaking fear and replacing it with boldness. YHVH did not create us to be the footstool or to be trampled upon. He gave us a Spirit of overcome. When we peak life in every situation without fear, we know that His covering is upon us.

YHVH will conserve what He said through His word to us. It is imperative in this season to be seeking wise counsel in what YHVH decreed in the Scriptures.

The enemy has been providing a world full of increasing lies, because he's trying to keep many caged because YHVH is raising His people up in greater ways to fulfill His purpose. The enemy has tried so hard to shut down creativity and caused people to feel that they are helpless and there is no future. Stop lending out your ears and return to the Truth that is the only way to survival.

While I have been in a place of stillness and surrender. A vision of a sudden season change became so significantly in such increasing acceleration. The days were shortened and things happened so fast. A whole new realm of knowing, receiving and experiencing the wisdom of YHVH is upon us. The destiny and life started changing as a tree in different seasons. The barren tree, started in fast blossoming, bearing fruit that never withered. This is our season of change and of preparation.

There is a significant change of faith and hope that is releasing right now. It's completely supernatural. YHVH who can do anything, change the natural in Supernatural. YHVH is increasing faith, filling us with renewed hope, even when it looks impossible. He will bring us in His season, the birthing of His promise that is about to be seen to bring a shift in seeing the miraculous power of YHVH

The attack of the enemy is to distract, to attempt to cause misalignments by putting such pressure on people to cause them to withdraw, give up or lay down the fight of faith. Because this battle feels so long the pressure steal clarity, and cause many to doubt in every promise YHVH has said.

Our Elohim is pleased by our faith, faithfulness, love and affection towards him. The enemy came to try harder than ever to remove as many possible out in this season, but YHVH will turn what the enemy meant for harm for our good.

The enemy came in ferociously, but by His Spirit, you are overcoming. YHVH is raising up overcomers, by increasing faith. You have stood, you have fought, you have believed. Yes you might have become weary and heavy laden. The enemy may have tried to shut you down and shut you up. But there is a holy travail of birthing being released upon you as you increase the level of faith. Stay in faith. Raise your expectation to see the manifestation of his role in your life.

Step into first fruits of the season of being marked by His fire that will change you. Many are in a very significant transitional place right now. YHVH is leading us into new places, spaces, assignments, and restoration.

Keep focus on YHVH and dont give the enemy any gap to steal, destroy or kill your joy.

Be blessed and stay blessed 🌷
